HOLIDAY HOUSE

THE Fresh Air Committee of the Guild of the Church of the Holy Trinity make their annual appeal to the members of the Parish in behalf of Holiday House at Sellersville.

Last Summer 386 persons in all were cared for by the Committee and sent to Summer homes for a two weeks' holiday, and of these 274 went to Holiday House. Every year proves more decidedly the great benefit which the tired women and children derive from the fresh air and good food.

To carry on the Summer work $3000 is needed. Last year the donations fell short of the requirements and it was necessary to use monies from the Church Funds to supply the deficiency. This year sundry expenses will be increased. Will you not also increase your gifts?

A collection will be taken at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Palm Sunday, April the eighth.

Donations may be sent, and cheques drawn to the order of

MRS. JANE T. MAULE, Treasurer,

OFFICE OF THE

Church of the Holy Trinity

PARISH HOUSE

217 SOUTH 20TH STREET, PHILADELPHIA

TO THE PARISHIONERS AND PEWHOLDERS OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY:

YOUR RECTOR AND WARDENS FEEL THAT THEY SHOULD INFORM YOU OF IMPORTANT REPAIRS THAT THEY HAVE FOUND NECESSARY TO MAKE UPON YOUR CHURCH BUILDING.

EARLY LAST SUMMER IT DEVELOPED THAT THE CHURCH ROOF WAS IN A SERIOUS CONDITION. INVESTIGATION SHOWED THAT IT DID NOT REST UPON THE STONE WALLS, BUT ONLY UPON UPRIGHT TIMBERS AND WHERE THESE WERE IMBEDED IN THE WALLS, DECAY HAD REDUCED THEM TO A CRUMBLING STATE.

IT WAS THOUGHT THAT A NEW STEEL ROOF, INVOLVING A NEW CEILING, WOULD BE NECESSARY, COSTING $30,000 AND CLOSING THE CHURCH FOR A YEAR.

TO TRY TO SAVE US FROM SUCH AN UNFORTUNATE CONTINGENCY, THE ARCHITECT, HORACE WELLS SELLERS, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE CHIEF OF THE CITY BUREAU OF BUILDING INSPECTION, WORKED OUT A PLAN INVOLVING MUCH LESS COST ENABLING THE WORK TO BE CARRIED ON DURING THE WEEK WITHOUT INTERFERING WITH THE SUNDAY SERVICES.

THIS WORK HAS JUST BEEN COMPLETED AND THE ROOF IS NOW STRONGER THAN IT EVER WAS. THE TOTAL COST INCLUDING OTHER NECESSARY REPAIRS SO FAR MADE, WILL PROBABLY NOT EXCEED TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

As even this seems a large amount, we would explain that all the roof trusses have been reinforced by a series of 24 heavy steel tie rods extending from the peak of the roof down to 24 large steel plates that are fastened to steel beams, which in turn rests on new concrete imbedded in the stone walls, so that the whole roof now rests on and is supported by the walls.

All Of this reinforcing, involving the erection of nearly 200 pieces of steel, was carried on under electric lighting, without seriously disturbing either the roof covering or the church ceiling. It was a tedious operation of many months, owing to the dark and confined place to work in.

The purlins or horizontal beams along the roof were also decayed where they entered the end walls, and new steel brackets were placed under the ends of these, connecting them solidly with the walls.

The main floor beams of the church were also found to be decaying, where their ends were imbedded in the foundation walls; a series of brick piers were therefore built in the cellar and steel beams were placed on them, thus supporting the wooden floor beams irrespective of the wall support.

The outer surface of the church walls was badly scaling and fearing accidents to people on the pavements, a skilled stone mason was engaged to remove the dangerous pieces, some of which, just ready to fall, weighed up to 13 pounds. The debris thus chipped off filled five two horse wagon loads. Similar work was also found necessary on the stone trimmings of the parish house, especially as to the stone cross on the front.

Numerous other lesser repairs have been found necessary and given attention.

Four donations of $1.000 each have been received toward all of this work and it is hoped that many others will feel it a privilege to thus help to keep their church in a working condition, by sending in contibutions, either large or small.

There are a great many other matters calling for attention, if funds can be procured for them.

We must repair or entirely renew, the interior decoration of the church. The carpets need renewing. The parish house has not been painted for 12 years and must be done. Some are asking for a new ventilating system, involving a very expensive new heating system; some for the modern indirect lighting system; some for tile flooring.

All of these would cost a large sum of money, but would be most desirable. They are only limited by the necessary funds.

If you will help, please make checks payable to the order of the "Church of the Holy Trinity."

Respectfully submitted,

Floyd W. Tomkins, Rector.

My dear Parishioners:

The time has come for us to determine how much we will give each Sunday as a part of our worship to forward the work of our Parish and to support the work in the Diocese and in the whole Church. May I suggest that, prayerfully and carefully, we consider this important matter and decide what we can do? I enclose a card which explains itself. These cards will be solemnly gathered on Sunday, December 3d, and presented to God on the Holy Table. No one but the Rector and his assistant will know how much is promised by each parishioner; and I may add that this is a moral and in no sense a legal obligation.

On the other side of this letter is a Budget which shows how much is asked for the year 1923. If we can have this amount promised through the signed cards the various charities of the Parish and our suggested share of the missionary work of the Diocese and of the whole Church will be cared for—and no further appeal need be made. If the quota is not provided it will be necessary for the charitable organizations of the Parish and of the Diocese to ask for further help. Let us hope and pray that this may be avoided.

Our envelope pledges for 1922 were $13,000 for Parish Work, and $8,000 for Missions outside of the Parish. About 415 promised to give through the envelopes or by regular payments. We ought to have for 1923 at least 600 givers. I know that some good people do not like to sign the cards and use the envelopes. I appreciate their hesitation. But may I not intimate that the Church in General Convention has adopted this plan with enthusiasm, and so loyalty would call for action setting aside our personal preferences? And, also, may I not say that from personal experience and from the experience of thousands, there is found a special happiness and a blessing when each Sunday comes and we lovingly place in the envelope our weekly gift to God and offer it to Him as a part of our worship?

If we all give, according to our ability, for 1923 we can advance God's work everywhere in our Parish and beyond, and a consequent blessing will come.

Do not hesitate to promise some gift each Sunday to the extent that you feel able to do. I would rather have offerings from a great many than large offerings from a few. I earnestly ask every individual to return a card. If all the members of a family gave each one a weekly offering it would mean more in every way than for one member to give for all the others.

I hope, also, that those who have pledged the past year will send in a card for 1923.

Asking God to guide us all, and praying for a blessing upon you and yours, I am,

Affectionately your Rector,

FLOYD W. TOMKINS.

To the Parishioners of
The Church of The Holy Trinity.

The Wardens feel that they should keep you advised of matters in regard to your Church property and finances, especially this year, as unusual conditions have required large expenditures, much beyond our ordinary ability to meet.

First as to Coal: It was very reassuring during the strike, to feel that next winter's supply was in our bins at the old price, but last winter's supply was only received as needed and was therefore mostly paid for since the first of the year, making two winters' supply payable in one fiscal year, or an unusual payment of about $1800.

Second as to Insurance: Building costs have increased so enormously that our finances have not allowed us to pay additional premiums sufficient to keep pace with them. We carry nearly a million dollars of insurance on our various buildings of Church, Chapels and Summer Homes. The insurance companies expect you to carry at least 80% of the value of to-day's replacement, less estimated depreciation. We have placed during this year $210,000 additional on our Church, Parish House and Chapels, costing for three years' term $900. Though we are still insured considerably below 80% of present abnormal values, a majority of our Vestry consider that our finances do not justify paying further premiums.

Third as to Repairs: We have thirteen old buildings in our Church, Chapels and Homes and they require constant and expensive repairs.

The walls and ceilings of the Church vestibule which were in a forlorn and dirty condition, have been redecorated and the 19th Street doors refinished; also the Parish House doors, costing in all over $500; other Parish House repairs $500; Prince of Peace Chapel repairs $400; repairs to the Church tower and front, some of which was in a dangerous condition, cost over $300.

Engineers advised us that the device for lowering and relamping the Church chandeliers was dangerous to both the building and the Sexton. This was reconstructed at a cost of over $400. Repairs to the roofs of the Church, Rectory and Parish House cost $500.

These and numerous other absolutely necessary matters, together with the coal and insurance above mentioned, have involved us in about $7,000 unlooked for expenditures. Though your pledges and offerings are $3,000 more than last year, may we hope that you will provide the $4,000 still lacking?

MY DEAR PARISHIONERS:

I enclose a card which explains itself. These cards will be gathered on Sunday, December 11th, and solemnly presented to God on the Holy Table.

On the other side of this letter is a Budget which shows how much is asked for the year 1928. If we all give according to our ability we can advance God's work everywhere, in our Parish and beyond, and a consequent blessing will come. Remember that we largely support two Chapels.

About 450 are giving through the envelopes or by regular payments. We ought to have for 1928 at least 600 givers.

Do not hesitate to promise some gift each Sunday to the extent that you feel able to give. If all the members of a family gave each one a weekly offering it would mean more in every way than for one member to give for all the others.

I ask three things of all our parishioners:

1. We must have more help in our growing Parish work. I am asking the Vestry for two Assistants to carry on and advance this work. This will call for larger gifts. Will you not increase your pledges ten per cent. (10%) this year? This will enable us to meet in a better measure our Church expenses.

2. Will you not, every one of you, give something in each side of the envelope and so mark on the Card? We Christians have a responsibility for the Diocese, the National Church and the World, as well as for our own Parish.

Will not every one signify on the Card the amount given, whether in a whole sum or weekly? This will help us in calculating our income.

God bless you.

Sincerely yours,

FLOYD W. TOMKINS.

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

PHILADELPHIA

THE RECTOR TO THE PARISH

ADVENT 1936

This is my annual letter concerning the support of our Church. You will find here the estimated budget for 1937 given to you in a graphic form so that you may see how the outgoing money is allocated. The estimated percentages of offerings are also shown.

But, to meet these budget requirements, about $12,000 of additional gifts and offerings are required. To accomplish this we need a larger number of regular contributors, and also an increase in the amount of our individual offerings.

The work of the Church is made possible through the support of those who care for that work. If what we stand for in the Church of the Holy Trinity wins your interest I ask you to help us by your offerings.

If we are growing each year in love for God we should be enlarging our vision of His work and showing our love for Him not only by supporting our own parish but in making the work of the Church possible throughout the world.

There will be no difficulty in raising our budget if each one who really cares for the Church will give regularly, week by week, setting aside some offering as the Lord has prospered him.

The First Sunday in Advent, November 29th, at 11 o'clock, we will have our Service of Dedication. Please sign the enclosed card and place it upon the offering plate at that service when we will ask God to bless us as we make our gifts to Him. All that we have comes from Him. Make your offering a living symbol of your gratitude to Him for His great gift to us.
